

Thank you for forwarding your Open Path Member ID!

- The first step in the process is to fill out my New Client Forms which include providing electronic Consent to Treatment.
- To do this, visit go.acfstexas.com/intake where you will be asked to enter your Name and Email:

- Our New Client Forms will ask for your demographic information and will include a place to give some more details about your current stressors and symptoms.
- In the area where it asks how your counseling services will be covered, you will click "Open Path Collective Member" (as shown below).
 - a. You will be asked to provide your Member ID Number in this blank and the amount you are able to afford at this time.
 - b. Please be sure to upload a screenshot of your email showing the Open Path Collective Member information so our Billing Team can notate it for their records.

What is your Open Path Member ID assigned? *

Open Path Members pay between $30-60 for individual counseling or $30-$80 for couples or family counseling. What is the amount that you are able to pay? *

Please upload a copy of any relevant documents to this form.

- Once the New Client Form has been completed in full and all documents signed, you will then be redirected to complete a FREE 20-minute Intake Screening with myself or any of the below providers who accept Open Path Clients. (see next page)

- This date/time is to ensure you have the support and safety measures in place for counseling; during that time we will also discuss what time would work for your ongoing appointment.

Molly Goldman

Molly strives to create a counseling environment of warmth, acceptance, and empowerment. While she believes that individuals are their own experts, she finds that counseling can provide the support, perspective, and tools that lead to growth and healing. Molly works with clients of all ages through a person-centered approach. She utilizes techniques from Cognitive Behavioral Therapy, Solution Focused Therapy, and Mindfulness. Molly has worked with clients facing the following concerns: anxiety, depression, poor self-esteem, chronic health conditions, spirituality, grief, trauma, relational issues, and LGBTQI challenges. Molly aspires to help individuals navigate through hardship, recognize their strengths, and build resilience.

Virginia Salmeron

Virginia has always been passionate about children and the entire family unit. She has worked with clients from various backgrounds, including Spanish-speaking clients. She has experience working with a wide range of ages and issues from young children and adolescents to adults. Areas include behavioral issues, anxiety, depression sexual abuse, trauma, PTSD, domestic violence, and marriage and family counseling.

Michael Russell

Mike specializes in working with children and their families through the child's natural language of play; however, he enjoys working with persons of all ages. Mike works from an existential-humanistic approach that emphasizes a client's unique world and their ability to choose their own path through life's challenges towards their own personal growth and goals. Mike is trained in several forms of expressive therapy and enjoys offering different forms of self-exploration in the therapy room to help clients engage with their thoughts, feelings, and inner worlds.

Mariana Marquez Vega

Mariana is bilingual, fluent in English and Spanish. She found her first job as a case manager at a Behavioral Health clinic for youth and families. She then expanded her career as a Clinician at an immigrant shelter for teenage boys. During that experience, she discovered a passion for mental health in teenagers with diagnoses such as depression, anxiety, bipolar, ADHD, PTSD, grief, and anger management. She then relocated six hours north to the outskirts of Fort Worth and expanded her experience to adults and geriatrics. Marian works with ages 4 - 104 in individual, couples, and family counseling.

Thank you for your patience and eagerness to get started with the process.

If you have any questions or concerns about scheduling, you can reach our Referrals Department at 817-851-2042 x 0 to discuss all of the above. I look forward to meeting with you soon!
